Birdwing member comments about Hotel Erodios:

"It was a very good hotel with a great restaurant. We ate the best breakfast and dinner of our vacation there."

"Excellent & a good restaurant - very good."

"Note that this hotel is on a steep hill and a walk back from the lakeside and/or village is strenuous - fine if you have a car though and the view is worth it!"

"The hotel was very comfortable and the room was cleaned every day. The hotel is set on the side of a hill and it is a bit of a walk down (and up again!) to the breakfast room. The food in the restaurant was average. There are several restaurants in the village."

"In Kerkini we always stay at Viglatorias. Very welcoming, nice setting, very nice and knowledgeable people. They can give valuable advice for walks into the mountain too."

"Hotel Viglatorias, a lovely mansion with views down to Lake Kerkini. We heard an owl in the garden before having dinner outside and then taking strolls to digest our excellent meal."

"We reached the Viglatorias and after a certain amount of scrambling for rooms, all settled in. We had liqueurs in front of the fire, while the four-course dinner was excellent."

"Can't recommend it highly enough. Very comfortable with delightful rooms, personal service from Stelios and Philly, terrific food."
